WOUFF HUNG CEREMONY A Wouff Hong is a fictional tool used to “punish” Amateur Radio operators who demonstrate poor operating practices. Legend has it that the Wouff Hong was invented by ARRL co-founder Hiram Percy Maxim under the pseudonym, “The Old Man” This is your chance to become a member of this secret society during our luncheon. You must be a licensed amateur radio operator and a member of the American Radio Relay League.

REGISTRATION REQUIRED VISIT: http://arrl-greatlakes.org/wh\_form1.html

The Philip J. McGan Memorial Silver Antenna Award The McGan award is presented to that ham who has demonstrated success in Amateur Radio public relations and best exemplifies the volunteer spirit of Phil McGan. This year’s recipient is John Levo, W8KIW from Hillsboro Ohio who will receive his award during the luncheon.

ADVANCE LUNCHEON REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED TO ORDER VISIT
